April's here, which means the anxiously anticipated Great North American Eclipse is just days away!

Darke County is prime real estate for eclipse viewing being located within the path of totality, making this a once-in-a-lifetime event for most of us.

On April 8 from 1-4 p.m. Greenville Public Library welcomes you to come experience it with us during our Eclipse Viewing Party on the lawn! Special eclipse glasses will be available to anyone joining us for the party. Popcorn will also be offered, but we are encouraging patrons to bring chairs, blankets, sun-screen, and whatever else they will need to be comfortable during this three-hour event.

Thanks to a grant from the Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation, GPL was able to obtain 2000 pair of eclipse glasses through Solar Eclipse Activities for Libraries (S.E.A.L.). The glasses we have are in compliance with the Filters for Direct Observation of the Sun, ensuring safe viewing.

This is a free event, and registration is not required. However, glasses are first come, first served and only while supplies last. For more information, call the library at (937) 548-3915.

Paint wonderful wildflowers with Rachael

April showers bring May flowers... and that's exactly what's coming to GPL in May!

On Thursday, May 9, join us for a free painting event where you can create your own field of wildflowers! The program will start at 1 p.m. with all of the essentials provided.

Since painting has the potential to be messy, we encourage patrons to bring their own apron and leave their nice clothes at home.

Registration for this event will begin on Monday, April 22. There are only 10 spots available, so make sure to get your name in before they fill up!

To register, call the library at (937) 548-3915 and ask for the Reference Desk.

Online requests made through our website and Facebook will not be honored.

For more information, contact Kelly.

Wonka to be featured in April

GPL will be showing the 2023 family fantasy film, Wonka starring Timothée Chalamet and Hugh Grant on Thursday, April 18 at 1 p.m. The film is rated PG with a run time of 1 hour 56 minutes. Patrons are invited to bring their favorite movie snacks and drinks, as well as a sweater for those that are easily chilled.

The Young Adult Department will also be showing Wonka on Thursday, April 25 at 3:30 p.m. for ages 11-18. Snacks will be provided.

Congratulations to our Winter Read winners!

The Greenville Public Library's Winter Reading Challenge was wildly successful this year with hundreds of entries gathered for our seven fabu-lous prize baskets!

GPL would like to thank everyone who participated for all of their hard work during our Blizzard of Books! There will be another chance to win prizes just around the corner during our Summer Reading Program. For more, check out the May edition of the Carnegie Chronicle.

Happy reading everyone!

Glowing Naturally with Pamela Graves

At 1 p.m. on Tuesday, April 23, Pamela Graves, owner and founder of Unbelievable Skincare, will return to GPL for another informational presentation on embracing our best selves.

During her program, Glowing Naturally: All-Natural Skincare for a Radiant You, Pamela will share the benefits of a natural, daily skincare routine in achieving a healthy, radiant glow.

She will cover topics such as the benefits of natural ingredients, potential risks of synthetic products and tips to embrace a more natural approach to skincare. Attendees will also get a chance to experience the Unbelievable Skincare difference firsthand.

Pamela began her Unbelievable Skincare journey in 2011 when she began making simple skincare essentials for herself. Extensive research and a passion for helping others has led her to share her creations with the world, one bottle at a time. Every order is made fresh with all-natural ingredients, then packaged in recyclable or reusable containers.

For more information on Pamela and her skincare line, find her on Facebook or go to her website: www.unbelievableskincare.com/

This is a free event, and registration is not required to attend. For more information, contact Kelly at (937) 548-3915.
