Oceans of Possibilities

Summer Reading Program June 6 - July 29

School is almost out, which means it's time for the GPL Summer Reading Program!

We will be back to our normal summer antics this year, with separate reading programs for children, teens and adults. Each group can participate in hopes of winning a wide variety of fun prizes! For more information on our individual reading programs, see the story on the back of this newsletter!

In addition to returning to our normal reading program format, we're also bringing back our summer programming! Family Fun Days will return each Wednesday at 11 a.m. Storytime, Lego Club, and School-Age activities are back as well. For more on children's events, including dates and times, pick up a brochure at the Circulation Desk.

Family Fun Days will feature some fan favorites like Mike Hemmelgarn and The Space Painter, Tom Sparough. We'll also have some new faces including local musicians, Providence Road and Mr. Puppet. Other performers include juggler Matt Jergens, magician Gordon Ross, and Mr. Molecule's Shark Tank Science Show.

The Summer Reading Program will begin on June 6 with our all-day kickoff event. Kids who sign up for the program on this day will be entered in a special drawing to win a fun water-themed prize. Crafts will also be available for 10 and under.

Saturday hours returning in June

Beginning June 4, Greenville Public Library will once again be open for business on Saturdays!

Our hours will be 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

New cards to include keytag option

Greenville Public Library is proud to announce that we will soon have new library cards to offer our patrons!

Any patron wishing to exchange an older card for the new card may do so at their convenience.

The new card, pictured above, will come with a keytag card in addition to the regular card.

The new card and keytag combo, printed by Rainbow Printing in Uniontown, Ohio, will be available beginning this summer!

Horse collection featured in May

May's display case collection is courtesy of Glenna Allen. She has been collecting horses for over 60 years and said only about a third of her collection is on display. The top shelf of the display includes photos of horses that Glenna has owned over the years.

When asked why she began collecting horses, Glenna replied, "Because I love them! I've loved horses since I was a little kid."

To have your collection featured, contact Carolyn Fisher at (937) 548-3915.

Jasenski to return for Homeopathy 102

On Thursday, June 2, Emily Jasenski will return to GPL for the next installment of her homeopathy series. Homeopathy 102 will be held at 1 p.m. in the third floor conference room.

Emily will be reviewing potencies and Chronic versus Acute issues. She will also cover how to build your own home apothecary, as well as how to dose a remedy and when to call a Homeopath.

Attendance of Homeopathy 101 is not necessary for this program but is encouraged. To review the 101 session online, visit Emily's website, emilyjasenski.com.

Emily Jasenski presents her Homeopathy 101 program at the library on April 21. She will be returning in June for another installment of her homeopathy series.

Friends accepting book donations

Just a reminder that the Friends of Greenville Public Library are always accepting donations for their continuous book sale!

The Friends request that only gently used, fairly current books and audio-visual items be donated. They will not accept soiled materials, textbooks, encyclopedias, or how-to books over 10 years old.

If you have any questions about donating, call us today!

SRP to offer exciting prizes for all ages

Get ready to read this summer because GPL is gathering a wide range of fun prizes for all ages!

The Children's Department reading program will require kids 10 and under to read 20 minutes a day, five days a week. Each participant will receive a booklet with stickers to track their progress. Sheets may be turned in each week in return for an incentive prize with all sheets collected going into the final grand prize drawing at the program's conclusion.

Grand prizes for ages 10 and under include an age-appropriate bike, a Kindle Fire tablet, and tickets to the Cincinnati Zoo. In addition, there will be an assortment of other prizes available.

The Young Adult Department grand prizes are four tickets to Kings Island and a Kindle Fire tablet. There will also be an assortment of other prizes available for ages 11 to 17. Young adults entered in the program will receive a reading sheet to track their progress as they read 1000 minutes over the course of the summer. Sheets can be turned in once completed. Teens can turn in as many completed sheets as they like, with each one earning them an entry in the prize drawing.

Adults ages 18 and over can enter to win one of many Discover Darke County themed prizes, including tickets to the Great Darke County Fair, Garst Museum, DCCA concerts, and more!

Adults may enter by filling out a slip for each book or audiobook they check out during the summer read.

The Summer Reading Program will run from Monday, June 6 through Friday, July 29. All entries must be received by end of day on July 29 to be entered in any of our drawings.
